After protesting against the bill being considered on sentimental grounds instead of the grounds of reason and wisdom, Mr. Reed said: Whoever provokes war must take the consequences, even of lawlessness which destroys institutions of learning. No nation can afford to adopt the doctrine that all injuries to such institutions shall be paid after the war is over."

Ex-Senator Manderson-the "ex" was attached at noon today-tried to accomplish what would have been a real reform just before completing his Senatorial carreer. He failed, but that should not prevent his receiving due credit for having made the attempt. Senator Manderson offered an amendment to the general deficiency appropriation bill, providing that the wives and daughters of Senators and Representatives should not be borne on the rolls as clerks, but the Senate promptly laid it on the table, and the wives and daughters of certain Senators and Representatives will continue to draw $100 a month for work which, with rare exceptions, they do not perform, and people else where will wonder why it is so difficult to get a Washington jury to convict those who rob the government.
